

case of a live man. I have the proof here if you desire to open up the subject. Angered by Mr. Lantz's refusal to allow him to be heard...

DEBATE IN THE SENATE. Depew Replies to Butler, and Hale Denounces an Alleged Lobby. WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Senate spent the day on the postoffice appropriation bill...

DESERVES TO BE SHOT. Mr. Cannon, in impressive tones, declared that a gentleman who would risk his place in the American Congress and advise men who had enlisted under the American flag to desert might be safe here, but if he should say the same things in the Philippines he would be tried by drumhead court martial and shot.

REPUBLICANS JEERED. This brought Mr. Lantz again to his feet. When he declared himself a Jefferson-Lincoln Democrat the Republicans jeered. Proceeding, he charged that his defeat had been compassed by bribery right and left.

FAIR AND COLD TO-DAY. Probably Fair to-morrow, with Rising Temperature. WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Forecast for Thursday and Friday: For Ohio—Generally fair on Thursday and Friday, except snow flurries on the north-eastern lake shore...

Local Observations on Wednesday. Bar. Ther. R.H. Wind. Weather. P. m. 30.19 87 West. Cloudy. T. p. m. 30.16 81 West. P. m. 30.14 77 Maximum temperature, 23; minimum temperature, 7.

Yesterday's Temperatures. Stations. Min. Max. 7 p. m. Atlanta, Ga. 32 42 34 Bismarck, N. D. 10 22 14 Buffalo, N. Y. 15 22 18

UNRULY YOUNG CZECHS. They Bombard the President of the Betschauer with Paper Balls. VIENNA, Feb. 20.—There was a repetition to-day of the turbulent scenes marking most of the recent sittings of the Reichsrath, which compelled the President to close the session.

Deep Snow in Pennsylvania. CORRY, Pa., Feb. 20.—In the history of this region no storm ever before reached the fury of to-day's blizzard. There is six feet of snow on country roads and six feet on city streets.

F. H. HAMILTON GUILTY. REPORTER CONVICTED OF MAN-SLAUGHTER IN FIRST DEGREE. Was Charged with Killing Leonard H. Day in a Hotel Saloon Brawl at Milwaukee. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 20.—The jury in the case of the State of Minnesota against Frank H. Hamilton, charged with murdering Leonard R. Day, after a forty hours' deliberation, furnished a surprise by coming into court a few minutes before 10 o'clock this morning...

Notes of the Crusade. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 20.—John Hudson, the bartender, whose wife was killed in Tuesday's saloon raid, at Milwaukee, came to Leavenworth to-day and swore out warrants for the four farmers under arrest here, charging them with murder in the first degree.

The Moser Murder Case. PEKIN, Ill., Feb. 20.—The defense in the Moser murder case received its first setback to-day. The State placed on the stand Henry Hoffman, a member of the Amish Church, and the defendant's attorney, upon cross-examination, tried to secure from him an admission that Moser had been estranged by the Amish members of the church.

Kennedy's Trial Nearly Over. NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The hearing of testimony in the trial of Dr. Samuel J. Kennedy for the murder of Emeline Reynolds, was concluded early to-day. The defense was allowed three hours this afternoon for summing up, and the prosecution two hours to-morrow.

Milwaukee Said to Have Been Robbed by Means of Forged Certificates. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 20.—The Sentinel to-morrow will say: "Evidence has been brought to light which shows the city of Milwaukee has been systematically defrauded for years. An investigation conducted for the past two days by City Treasurer Ballou shows that the city has been defrauded out of a sum which is estimated anywhere from $200,000 to $300,000, and may even be greater.

A Little Girl's Horrible Crime. STEPHENSON, Mich., Feb. 20.—During the absence of her mother to-day the six-year-old daughter of John Myers, for the fourth time, attempted to take the life of one of her two smaller sisters and succeeded. She took a stick of burning stove-wood and, holding her two-year-old sister to the floor, pressed the brand against her clothing.

Five Negroes to Be Hanged. SYLVANIA, Ga., Feb. 20.—Arnold Augustus, Andrew Davis, Richard Sanders, William Hudson and Samuel Baldwin, five of the negroes who killed William H. Herring, an innocent white man, were found guilty of murder last night and sentenced to be hanged March 23 at the State Prison at the Archer. The charter of this order, which was found by the State's attorney, is said to contain an oath of vengeance against the whites, and the men were obliged to believe the oath against the whites upon death.

To Die for Burning a Constable. DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 20.—The jury's verdict, rendered at 11 o'clock, was death by hanging in the case of Eugene Faulkner, who, with four other men, burned Constable Pete Hain to death on the night of Dec. 18, 1897, in the town of Chaparral, in this city. Two companions were given life sentences and two others turned state's evidence.

Will Remain in Jail. (CONCLUDED FROM FIRST PAGE.) Disturbed. Mrs. Nation receives a large number of letters and telegrams, and spends the greater part of her time in writing. She has received orders for articles from two Eastern magazines, and has been spending most of her time preparing them.

Allegany Bank Run Ended. PITTSBURG, Feb. 20.—The run on the German National Bank of Allegany, which began yesterday and continued to-day, was ended to-night. The bank was declared open after the horses had finished, and the horses Miss Ransom, Don Clark and the other horses were sold. The bank was closed to-day, and the depositors were allowed to withdraw their funds.

Reception to the D. A. R. Women and Children Greeted by Mrs. McKinley at the White House. WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—After the preliminary opening exercises at to-day's session of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, a stir was created when Mrs. Nettie of Massachusetts, presented a resolution to the effect that the statements recently circulated attacking the board of officers of the D. A. R., be being untrue, libelous and reflecting upon the honor of the organization, should receive the disapproval of the society.

Charged with Murder. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 20.—John Hudson, the bartender, whose wife was killed in Tuesday's saloon raid, at Milwaukee, came to Leavenworth to-day and swore out warrants for the four farmers under arrest here, charging them with murder in the first degree.

Notes of the Crusade. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 20.—John Hudson, the bartender, whose wife was killed in Tuesday's saloon raid, at Milwaukee, came to Leavenworth to-day and swore out warrants for the four farmers under arrest here, charging them with murder in the first degree.

General Sporting News. At the horse sale at Lexington, Ky., yesterday, E. V. Hall, of Boswell, Ind., bought a bay colt, by Ashland Wilkes, for $700. The American Baseball League, announced yesterday that the schedule meeting of the league will be held at the Lafayette Hotel, Philadelphia, on March 20.

Bank Cashier Held Up. Bold Deed of a Farmer's Son Who Was Soon Captured. RANTOUL, Ill., Feb. 20.—The private banking institution of F. B. Vennum, at Foshier, a hamlet in Champaign county, was robbed to-day of $1,200 by Arthur Hyer, a farmer's son, aged twenty-two years, who entered the bank, said he wanted money, and was accompanied by a pistol.

Condensed Telegrams. Bessie and Alice Wilkes, aged sixteen and eighteen, were burned in their home at Prattville, Ala., yesterday. The tenth annual Tuskegee negro conference is in session at Tuskegee, Ala. Booker T. Washington is presiding over the meetings.

Losses by Fire. SHENANDOAH, Va., Feb. 21.—Shortly after last midnight the big seed corn establishment of Rankin & Sons was gutted by fire, believed to be of incendiary origin, and over fifteen thousand bushels of select corn seed were destroyed.

Movements of Steamers. NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Arrived: Oceanic, from Liverpool; Vaderland, from Southampton; and the Infirmary, from the Marlon club, or Southampton; Werra, from Mediterranean ports; Georgia, from Liverpool; Sailed: Sardinian, for Glasgow; St. Louis, for Southampton; Majestic, for Liverpool; Noordland, for Antwerp.

Obituary. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 20.—Col. Samuel Smith Anderson, one of the most valiant soldiers of the Mexican and civil wars, and a member of the Marlon club, died this morning at the Morton Home. Death was due to general debility and the infirmities of advanced years.

For Inaugural Ceremonies. W. H. Schraeder, W. C. Grigsby, H. H. Woodsmill, J. B. Orman, R. E. Scott and J. T. Walters are members of a committee which will make arrangements for an Indianapolis delegation of one hundred or more to attend the inaugural ceremonies at Washington on March 4. The idea originated with members of the Marlon club, and other organizations, including the Columbia Club, were invited to join.

A Farmer's Wife Finds a Food That the Children and Grown Folks Thrive Upon. Mrs. Sarah Leasinger, near Stuart, Neb., says: "My little girl, eight years old, has always been a delicate child and has not been able to stay in school long at a time, for she often faints and was weak and puny until last February she had a sick spell and I began feeding her on Grape-Nuts Food."

Reception to the D. A. R. Women and Children Greeted by Mrs. McKinley at the White House. WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—After the preliminary opening exercises at to-day's session of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, a stir was created when Mrs. Nettie of Massachusetts, presented a resolution to the effect that the statements recently circulated attacking the board of officers of the D. A. R., be being untrue, libelous and reflecting upon the honor of the organization, should receive the disapproval of the society.

Charged with Murder. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 20.—John Hudson, the bartender, whose wife was killed in Tuesday's saloon raid, at Milwaukee, came to Leavenworth to-day and swore out warrants for the four farmers under arrest here, charging them with murder in the first degree.

Notes of the Crusade. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 20.—John Hudson, the bartender, whose wife was killed in Tuesday's saloon raid, at Milwaukee, came to Leavenworth to-day and swore out warrants for the four farmers under arrest here, charging them with murder in the first degree.

General Sporting News. At the horse sale at Lexington, Ky., yesterday, E. V. Hall, of Boswell, Ind., bought a bay colt, by Ashland Wilkes, for $700. The American Baseball League, announced yesterday that the schedule meeting of the league will be held at the Lafayette Hotel, Philadelphia, on March 20.

Bank Cashier Held Up. Bold Deed of a Farmer's Son Who Was Soon Captured. RANTOUL, Ill., Feb. 20.—The private banking institution of F. B. Vennum, at Foshier, a hamlet in Champaign county, was robbed to-day of $1,200 by Arthur Hyer, a farmer's son, aged twenty-two years, who entered the bank, said he wanted money, and was accompanied by a pistol.

Condensed Telegrams. Bessie and Alice Wilkes, aged sixteen and eighteen, were burned in their home at Prattville, Ala., yesterday. The tenth annual Tuskegee negro conference is in session at Tuskegee, Ala. Booker T. Washington is presiding over the meetings.

Losses by Fire. SHENANDOAH, Va., Feb. 21.—Shortly after last midnight the big seed corn establishment of Rankin & Sons was gutted by fire, believed to be of incendiary origin, and over fifteen thousand bushels of select corn seed were destroyed.

Movements of Steamers. NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Arrived: Oceanic, from Liverpool; Vaderland, from Southampton; and the Infirmary, from the Marlon club, or Southampton; Werra, from Mediterranean ports; Georgia, from Liverpool; Sailed: Sardinian, for Glasgow; St. Louis, for Southampton; Majestic, for Liverpool; Noordland, for Antwerp.

Obituary. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 20.—Col. Samuel Smith Anderson, one of the most valiant soldiers of the Mexican and civil wars, and a member of the Marlon club, died this morning at the Morton Home. Death was due to general debility and the infirmities of advanced years.

For Inaugural Ceremonies. W. H. Schraeder, W. C. Grigsby, H. H. Woodsmill, J. B. Orman, R. E. Scott and J. T. Walters are members of a committee which will make arrangements for an Indianapolis delegation of one hundred or more to attend the inaugural ceremonies at Washington on March 4. The idea originated with members of the Marlon club, and other organizations, including the Columbia Club, were invited to join.

A Farmer's Wife Finds a Food That the Children and Grown Folks Thrive Upon. Mrs. Sarah Leasinger, near Stuart, Neb., says: "My little girl, eight years old, has always been a delicate child and has not been able to stay in school long at a time, for she often faints and was weak and puny until last February she had a sick spell and I began feeding her on Grape-Nuts Food."

Reception to the D. A. R. Women and Children Greeted by Mrs. McKinley at the White House. WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—After the preliminary opening exercises at to-day's session of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, a stir was created when Mrs. Nettie of Massachusetts, presented a resolution to the effect that the statements recently circulated attacking the board of officers of the D. A. R., be being untrue, libelous and reflecting upon the honor of the organization, should receive the disapproval of the society.

Charged with Murder. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 20.—John Hudson, the bartender, whose wife was killed in Tuesday's saloon raid, at Milwaukee, came to Leavenworth to-day and swore out warrants for the four farmers under arrest here, charging them with murder in the first degree.

Notes of the Crusade. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 20.—John Hudson, the bartender, whose wife was killed in Tuesday's saloon raid, at Milwaukee, came to Leavenworth to-day and swore out warrants for the four farmers under arrest here, charging them with murder in the first degree.

General Sporting News. At the horse sale at Lexington, Ky., yesterday, E. V. Hall, of Boswell, Ind., bought a bay colt, by Ashland Wilkes, for $700. The American Baseball League, announced yesterday that the schedule meeting of the league will be held at the Lafayette Hotel, Philadelphia, on March 20.

Bank Cashier Held Up. Bold Deed of a Farmer's Son Who Was Soon Captured. RANTOUL, Ill., Feb. 20.—The private banking institution of F. B. Vennum, at Foshier, a hamlet in Champaign county, was robbed to-day of $1,200 by Arthur Hyer, a farmer's son, aged twenty-two years, who entered the bank, said he wanted money, and was accompanied by a pistol.

Condensed Telegrams. Bessie and Alice Wilkes, aged sixteen and eighteen, were burned in their home at Prattville, Ala., yesterday. The tenth annual Tuskegee negro conference is in session at Tuskegee, Ala. Booker T. Washington is presiding over the meetings.

Losses by Fire. SHENANDOAH, Va., Feb. 21.—Shortly after last midnight the big seed corn establishment of Rankin & Sons was gutted by fire, believed to be of incendiary origin, and over fifteen thousand bushels of select corn seed were destroyed.

Movements of Steamers. NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Arrived: Oceanic, from Liverpool; Vaderland, from Southampton; and the Infirmary, from the Marlon club, or Southampton; Werra, from Mediterranean ports; Georgia, from Liverpool; Sailed: Sardinian, for Glasgow; St. Louis, for Southampton; Majestic, for Liverpool; Noordland, for Antwerp.

Obituary. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 20.—Col. Samuel Smith Anderson, one of the most valiant soldiers of the Mexican and civil wars, and a member of the Marlon club, died this morning at the Morton Home. Death was due to general debility and the infirmities of advanced years.

For Inaugural Ceremonies. W. H. Schraeder, W. C. Grigsby, H. H. Woodsmill, J. B. Orman, R. E. Scott and J. T. Walters are members of a committee which will make arrangements for an Indianapolis delegation of one hundred or more to attend the inaugural ceremonies at Washington on March 4. The idea originated with members of the Marlon club, and other organizations, including the Columbia Club, were invited to join.

A Farmer's Wife Finds a Food That the Children and Grown Folks Thrive Upon. Mrs. Sarah Leasinger, near Stuart, Neb., says: "My little girl, eight years old, has always been a delicate child and has not been able to stay in school long at a time, for she often faints and was weak and puny until last February she had a sick spell and I began feeding her on Grape-Nuts Food."

Advertisement for 'Grape-Nuts Food' featuring an illustration of a woman and child. Text includes 'EXHAUSTED', 'PARIS, LONDON, NEW YORK, TORONTO', and '15 CENTS A COPY'.

he said, in reference to the accounts of some of his alleged adventures. The New York Herald says that it has been ascertained that Miss Gertrude Hill, the third daughter of James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad company, was until a few days ago in grave danger of death as a result of an operation for appendicitis.

DOINGS OF LEGISLATURES. A bill has been introduced in the Illinois Senate making a felony and providing its punishment by imprisonment in the penitentiary. The Montana vote on senator yesterday resulted: Mantle, 3; Maginnis, 2; Frank, 1; Cooper, 2; Coburn, 2; Cook, 2; Toole, 1; Kennedy and Clancy, 1 each.

CITY NEWS NOTES. Col. George W. Bunting, who for several days has been seriously ill at his home, at 424 North Warren avenue, was said yesterday to be recovering from his illness. The cashier, Arthur Vennum, handed out the money and Hyer backed out of the door with the money.

Losses by Fire. SHENANDOAH, Va., Feb. 21.—Shortly after last midnight the big seed corn establishment of Rankin & Sons was gutted by fire, believed to be of incendiary origin, and over fifteen thousand bushels of select corn seed were destroyed.

Movements of Steamers. NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Arrived: Oceanic, from Liverpool; Vaderland, from Southampton; and the Infirmary, from the Marlon club, or Southampton; Werra, from Mediterranean ports; Georgia, from Liverpool; Sailed: Sardinian, for Glasgow; St. Louis, for Southampton; Majestic, for Liverpool; Noordland, for Antwerp.

Obituary. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 20.—Col. Samuel Smith Anderson, one of the most valiant soldiers of the Mexican and civil wars, and a member of the Marlon club, died this morning at the Morton Home. Death was due to general debility and the infirmities of advanced years.

For Inaugural Ceremonies. W. H. Schraeder, W. C. Grigsby, H. H. Woodsmill, J. B. Orman, R. E. Scott and J. T. Walters are members of a committee which will make arrangements for an Indianapolis delegation of one hundred or more to attend the inaugural ceremonies at Washington on March 4. The idea originated with members of the Marlon club, and other organizations, including the Columbia Club, were invited to join.

A Farmer's Wife Finds a Food That the Children and Grown Folks Thrive Upon. Mrs. Sarah Leasinger, near Stuart, Neb., says: "My little girl, eight years old, has always been a delicate child and has not been able to stay in school long at a time, for she often faints and was weak and puny until last February she had a sick spell and I began feeding her on Grape-Nuts Food."